Student's Book audio scripts

Unit 1 All about you

Lesson A, Ex. 2B p. 3 (1.04)

1. Man Good-bye. Have a nice evening.
   Woman Thank you. You too.
2. Woman Hey, Oscar. How are you?
   Man Good, thanks.
3. Woman See you later.
   Man OK. Have a good day.
4. Woman Hello. I'm Emma.
   Man Nice to meet you.
5. Man Good morning.
   Woman Hi. How are you?
6. Man Good night. Have a good weekend.
   Woman Bye. See you next week.

Lesson C, Ex. 4A p. 7 (1.14)

1. College library card

Mr. Roberts Hello. Are you a student at this college?
Elizabeth Um, yes, I am. I mean, I'm new here. My name's Elizabeth Uygur.
Mr. Roberts Nice to meet you. I'm Mr. Roberts. So how do you spell your last name?
Elizabeth It's U-Y-G-U-R.
Mr. Roberts Sorry. Y-U-G-A-R?
Elizabeth No, U-Y-G-U-R.
Mr. Roberts Thanks. And your middle initial?
Elizabeth My middle initial is R.
Mr. Roberts And what's your phone number?
Elizabeth Uh, my cell phone number is 3-4-7, 5-5-5, oh-8-oh-6.
Mr. Roberts And your home phone number?
Elizabeth It's 7-1-8, 5-5-5, 6-oh-2-7
Mr. Roberts 6-2-2-7?
Elizabeth No, 6-zero-2-7.
Mr. Roberts OK. And your email address?
Elizabeth It's E-R-U-Y-G-U-R-7 at C-U-P-dot-org
Mr. Roberts Let me check that—E-R-U-Y-G-U-R-7 at C-U-P-dot-org
Elizabeth Yes, that's right.
Mr. Roberts And what's your student ID number?
Elizabeth Uh, it's 1-9-2, 9-8-4-5, 8-7
Mr. Roberts OK. 1-9-2, 9-8-4-5, 8-7.
Elizabeth Right.
Mr. Roberts Great. Here's your new library card.
Elizabeth Thank you, Mr. Roberts.

2. Fitness Gym

Bryan Hello. I'm here to use the gym.
Receptionist Great. So are you a member?
Bryan Um . . . no.
Receptionist OK. Just one moment, please . . . So what's your last name?
Bryan Davis. D-A-V-I-S.
Receptionist And your first name?
Bryan It's Bryan.
Receptionist B-R-I-A-N?
Bryan No, sorry. B-R-Y-A-N.
Receptionist And your middle initial?
Bryan It's Z.
Receptionist OK. And what's your phone number?
Bryan Well, my home phone is 5-oh-8, 5-5-5, 9-3-7-4.
Receptionist And your cell phone?
Bryan It's 9-1-7, 5-5-5, 6-2-3-zero.
Receptionist Thanks. And what's your email address?
Bryan It's B-dot-Z-dot-davis at C-U-P-dot-org.
Receptionist So that's B-dot-Z-dot-davis at C-U-P-dot-org.
Bryan That's right.
Receptionist OK. So here's your membership card. Enjoy the gym.
Bryan Thank you.

Unit 2 In class

Lesson A, Ex. 3A p. 13 (1.18)

Miss Nelson Good morning, everyone. How are you today?
Class Good. How are you?
Miss Nelson I'm fine, thanks. And it's a beautiful day! Uh . . . so who's absent today?
Man Well, Ellen's not here.
Miss Nelson Oh, so where's Ellen? Is she still sick?
Man No, I think she's at the library.
Miss Nelson Well, that's good. I mean, it's good that she's not sick. Um . . . How about Carmen?
Man I don't know. I mean, maybe she's still in the cafeteria. You know, maybe she's just late.
Woman No, Carmen's absent today. She's at work.
Miss Nelson At work? Well, OK. OK. What about Hiroki? I think he's absent today.
Woman No, he's not. He's over there.
Miss Nelson Oh! There you are, Hiroki . . . Uh, Hiroki?
Woman Umm . . . I think he's asleep.
Miss Nelson Um . . . and Alison. Is Alison here today?
Alison Yes, I'm right here, Miss Nelson.
Miss Nelson Oh, Alison, are you OK?
Alison Well, I'm sick today.
Miss Nelson Oh, that's not good! Poor Alison . . . OK, so let's open our books to page nine.

Lesson D, Ex. 3A and 3B p. 19 (1.29)

1. Mr. Brown Good morning, everyone.
   Andrei Good morning, Mr. Brown.
   Mr. Brown OK. So. Open your books, and turn to page 9.
   Andrei I'm sorry. What page are we on? Page 8?
   Mr. Brown Page 9. Open your books, and turn to page 9.

Photocopiable © Cambridge University Press 2014

2. Mr. Brown OK. What's on page 9?
Class A picture of a classroom.
Mr. Brown Right. Look at the picture. What's in the classroom?
Rosa A clock.
Mr. Brown Yes, that's right.
Aya Excuse me. What's the word for this? Is it a desk?
Mr. Brown Right. The teacher's desk.

3. Mr. Brown OK, now. Read the questions aloud, Andrei.
Andrei Can you repeat that, please?
Mr. Brown Read the questions aloud.
Andrei OK. "Where's the clock?"
Mr. Brown Good. So, everybody where's the clock?
Class It's on the wall . . .
Mr. Brown OK. Now Laura, question number two. . . .

4. Mr. Brown Now. Close your books. What can you remember about the picture? Andrei, your book is still open.
Andrei I'm sorry. Close? Like this?
Mr. Brown Yes, that's right. Close your books.
Andrei How do you spell "close"?
Mr. Brown C-L-O-S-E.
Andrei Thank you.

5. Mr. Brown OK. Listen to the conversation.
Andrei Excuse me, what's "a conversation"?
Mr. Brown It's people speaking. Now listen.
Woman Hello. How are you?
Man I'm good thanks. How about you?

6. Mr. Brown OK, now. Answer the questions. Write the answers in your notebooks.
Andrei Uh-oh. Where's my pen? Excuse me. Can I borrow a pen, please?
Rosa Sure. Here you go.
Andrei Thanks.
Mr. Brown Andrei, are you ready? OK. Question 1: Where's the clock?

Unit 3 Favorite people

Lesson B, Ex. 4B p. 25 (1.36)

1. Man Is she a friend from high school?
2. Woman Is she a college student?
3. Man Is he shy?
4. Woman Is he smart?
5. Man Is he interesting?
6. Woman Is she fun?

Lesson D, Ex. 3A and 3B p. 29 (1.42)

1. Jane

Man Who's that? It's a great picture.
Jane Oh, it's my neighbor, Tip. Actually, his real name is Tom. But everyone calls him Tip.
Man Really? Huh. Is he nice?
Jane Yeah, he is. He's fun. And he's my age. 18.
Man 18? Really? Is he a student?
Jane Yeah. He's an art student.

2. Lucas

Woman Who's your best friend?
Lucas Her name's Julie.
Woman Yeah? Is she a friend from school?
Lucas Actually, she's my cousin.
Woman Your cousin? Really? Where's she from? Is she from around here?
Lucas Yeah. She's from here. She's really interesting. She's a songwriter.
Woman Wow. Is she our age?
Lucas Yeah. Well, she's 24.

3. Lisa

Lisa My sister and I are really good friends.
Man Really? That's nice. Is she a student, too?
Lisa Actually, no. She's 28. She's my older sister. She's a teacher.
Man A teacher? Really? What's her name?
Lisa Melissa. She's really nice. But she's shy.

4. Patrick

Patrick Carlos and I are good friends.
Woman Carlos? Really? Carlos from our class?
Patrick Yeah.
Woman He's really smart.
Patrick Yeah, he is. You know, he's 45.
Woman 45? Really? Wow he looks 30!
Patrick You know, he's a big soccer fan.

Unit 4 Everyday life

Lesson B, Ex. 2A p. 36 (1.48)

Man What's your weekly routine?
One. Do you take a class in the evening?
Two. Do you and your family eat together on Sundays?
Three. Do your friends call you in the evening?
Four. Does your best friend meet you after class?
Five. Do you and your friends play sports?
Six. Do you go shopping on Saturdays?
Seven. Does your best friend go shopping with you?

Photocopiable © Cambridge University Press 2014

Lesson C, Ex. 3A p. 39 (1.52)

1. Man Do you text your parents?
   Woman No, not really. Well, on my way home at night. I text and say "I'm on my way."
2. Man Do you watch a lot of sports on TV?
   Woman Well, I only watch soccer. You know, on the weekends.
3. Woman Do you read the news online?
   Man Yeah. Well, in the mornings. I make coffee and check the headlines.
4. Woman Do you play games on the Internet?
   Man Yes. Well, I play chess with my friend in the evenings.
5. Man Do you listen to the radio?
   Woman Well, I listen to the same show in the mornings. But that's all.

Lesson D, Ex. 2A p. 41 (1.53)

Woman Hey, Tyler, here's an interesting article about teenagers, you know, about their daily habits. Just listen to this! "An average teenager sends or receives over two hundred text messages a day." That's amazing!

Tyler Two hundred? Yeah, well, I only send about fifty messages a day.

Woman Yeah, but how many do you receive?

Tyler Well, um . . . probably about fifty! Oh, OK. So I send and receive about a hundred text messages a day. That's not bad.

Woman And what about music? Do you listen to a lot of music? The average teenager listens to music for two hours a day.

Tyler I don't know . . . Actually, I only listen when I'm on the bus or train, and uh . . . that's about two hours every day. So I think I listen to music about two hours a day. I guess I'm pretty average when it comes to music.

Woman Yeah. . . . And then it says, "teenagers spend over four hours a day on the Internet."

Tyler Oh, I don't spend that much time. You know, I'm only on for about two hours at night . . . Oh, wait . . . I spend about two hours on different social networks during the day. OK. So I guess I spend four hours a day on the Internet. Is that a lot?

Woman Oh, I don't know . . . OK. How much television do you watch? It says here that an average teenager watches about twenty hours a week of television. Now that's a lot.

Tyler Twenty hours? I don't watch twenty hours a week! Let's see. On weekdays, I watch about three hours at night, and then, uh . . . on the weekends I watch three or four baseball games or soccer matches. So that's probably eight hours. So how much is that?

Woman It's twenty-three hours a week! I mean, that's almost one whole day a week you spend watching TV!

Tyler So I spend twenty-three hours a week in front of the TV! Wow, that's pretty bad, isn't it!

Lesson D, Ex. 2B p. 41 (1.54)

1. Tyler So I send and receive about a hundred text messages a day. That's not bad.
2. Tyler So I think I listen to music about two hours a day. I guess I'm pretty average when it comes to music.
3. Tyler OK. So I guess I spend four hours a day on the Internet. Is that a lot?
4. Tyler So I spend TV twenty-three hours a week in front of the TV! Wow, that's pretty bad, isn't it!

Unit 5 Free time

Lesson A, Ex. 1B p. 44 (2.01)

Rebecca Hey, Robert, listen to this. It's a survey in my magazine.

Robert What's it about?

Rebecca It's about your free time.

Robert OK. Ask me the questions.

Rebecca Wait. Name: Robert Acosta. Occupation: Student. OK. One. How often do you go out? Every night? Once or twice a week? Other?

Robert Um . . . I guess I go out once or twice a week.

Rebecca OK. Two. When do you usually go out? On weeknights? On weekends?

Robert On weekends.

Rebecca How about weeknights?

Robert No.

Rebecca OK. Three. Where do you go? To the movies? To clubs? To restaurants? To the gym? Other? Well, not the gym, that's for sure. . . .

Robert Hey! Check, uh . . . movies and restaurants.

Rebecca Next question: Four. Who do you go out with? Your family? Your friends? Your girlfriend? Other?

Robert Um . . . my friends.

Rebecca Friends? No girlfriend?

Robert No, not right now.

Rebecca OK. Five. And how often does your family eat out together? Once or twice a week? Two or three times a month? Only on special occasions? Other?

Robert No way!

Rebecca OK. Other?

Robert Yeah. Once a month.

Rebecca Last question. Six. What do you do in your free time at home? Do you . . . go on the Internet?

Robert No.

Rebecca Relax in front of the TV?

Robert Yeah.

Rebecca Rent movies?

Robert No.

Rebecca Other?

Robert Yeah. I do surveys in magazines!

Photocopiable © Cambridge University Press 2014

Lesson A, Ex. 3B p. 45 (2.04)

1. Man Do you relax in your free time?
   Woman Well, yes, on the weekends.
   Man What do you do?
   Woman I sleep late, read, watch TV . . .
2. Woman Do you go to the movies?
   Man Yes, I do. I like movies a lot.
   Woman How often do you go?
   Man Two or three times a month.

Lesson B, Ex. 3A p. 47 (2.07)

1. Sitcom actor Oh, no! What is that? (laughter)
2. Game show host (buzzer) Oh, I'm sorry. That's the wrong answer. Now it's Cecilia's turn.
3. (cartoon music theme song and sound effects)
4. Newscaster Good evening. Tonight's top story: twenty thousand new jobs . . .
5. Soap opera actor (music) But Diane, . . . I love you.
6. Talk show host (music) OK. Welcome to the show. My guest tonight is an actor. Her latest movie is just out this week. Ladies and gentleman, please welcome. . . .
7. Announcer (nature sounds) The groundhog sleeps through the winter and comes out in the spring. . . .
8. Reality show host OK. You have thirty seconds. Are you ready?
   Contestant Uh. . . . yeah, I'm ready!

Lesson C, Ex. 3A p. 49 (2.11)

1. Man No, I have a job at a radio station. So I work every day. I mean, my evenings are free. But usually I'm tired in the evenings, so I just go home and relax.
2. Woman No, never! (laughs) They're so noisy! And I don't like the music. So yeah, on Fridays I meet my friends and we go to a café and we just like, talk and hang out together.
3. Man Well, yeah, I mean, we always have dinner together. But then I do my homework and my mom reads to my little brother. My dad usually watches the news. And sometimes my brother and I play games on our computers.
4. Woman Well, I hang out with Jessica. She's really fun. We're friends from school. So, yeah, she's nice. We're good friends.
5. Man I don't really know them. I live in an apartment building and I never really see anyone. They're all pretty quiet and, anyway, I work at a club every night, so I get home very late. So, no, I don't really know my neighbors.

Lesson D, Ex. 2B p. 51 (2.12)

1. Megan
   Man So, uh . . . how do you like your new cell phone?
   Megan Oh, I love it. I use it all the time.
   Man Really?
   Megan Yeah, you know, it's a smartphone, so I use it for email. I think I check my email every five minutes!
   Man What about texting? Do you text a lot?
   Megan Well, yeah. I mean, I never make phone calls. I just text people. And I go on my social network a lot, probably once or twice every hour.
   Man What about music? Do you use it to listen to music?
   Megan No, I don't. I mean, I'm just too busy.

2. Ryan
   Woman You have a cell phone, right?
   Ryan Um . . . yes. Yes, I do.
   Woman So what do you do with it . . . your cell phone?
   Ryan Well, you know, I send a lot of text messages, and uh . . .
   Woman Do you ever go on a social networking site?
   Ryan Well, not with my phone. I mean, it's not a smartphone. . . .um . . . I use my laptop for that.
   Woman What about phone calls? Do you make a lot of phone calls?
   Ryan Well, um . . . I call my girlfriend a lot. I talk to her three or four times a day.
   Woman Really? Uh . . . so how often do you see her?
   Ryan Well, she lives about two hundred miles away, so only once a month.
   Woman Huh . . . just once a month . . .
   Ryan Yeah, but we talk on the phone all the time. And if I see something interesting, I take a photo of it with my phone and I send it to her! It's great.

Unit 6 Neighborhoods

Lesson B, Ex. 2 p. 56 (2.18)

DJ (music) Hi, everybody, you're listening to KYMZ on Ninety-eight-point-six. My name is Ross Williams. So, what's on this weekend?

1. OK. Now, on Saturday night, there's a children's concert at the park. There's music, dancing, and games. Huh. Sounds like a lot of fun. The concert starts at 5:30 p.m. So, that's 5:30 p.m. tomorrow . . . at the park.
2. On Sunday, there's an art exhibit at the museum all afternoon. The exhibit is called "Computer Crazy." There's work from local artists. So, go down to the museum on Sunday. Um . . . it starts at twelve noon. That's twelve o'clock on Sunday.
3. OK, soccer fans, listen up. The three o'clock match on Saturday at the stadium is now at three-thirty. That's three-thirty—there at the stadium.
4. Finally, if you like theater, go and see the play Are you OK? It's on Saturday night at the City Theater. They say it's very funny. It starts at seven-forty-five. So, have a great weekend, folks. There's a lot to do in town here this weekend.

Photocopiable © Cambridge University Press 2014

Lesson C, Ex. 3A p. 59 (2.22)

1. Jason and Sophia

Jason You know, I need some new sunglasses.
Sophia Yeah, me too. My sunglasses are really old.
Jason So, let's go to the mall. There's a big department store there. They have sunglasses, I think.
Sophia You know, I don't really like big department stores. They're always so busy.
Jason Actually, there's a store over there—next to the gym.
Sophia OK. Let's try there.

2. Tyler and Jen

Tyler I really need a break from work.
Jen Oh, I know. I'm tired.
Tyler Well . . . I have an idea . . . Let's do something fun after work.
Jen Yeah, let's go out somewhere. Do you know any good places?
Tyler Well, there's a new club near here. There's a jazz band tonight, I think.
Jen You know, I'm not a big fan of jazz. I mean, it's OK, but . . .
Tyler Well, what about the Rock Club? It's a fun place to go. I'm a big fan of rock. I love rock music.
Jen Me too. That's a great idea.
Tyler The bands usually start around seven o'clock.
Jen OK. That sounds perfect. Let's do it.

3. Michael and Anna

Michael I'm kind of hungry. How about you?
Anna Yeah, me too. Uh, do you know any good places to eat?
Michael Well, there are a lot of nice restaurants around here.
Anna Right. But I, uh, don't have a lot of money with me.
Michael No, me neither . . . Let's just go to a fast-food place.
Anna You know, I never eat fast food. I mean, I don't really like it.
Michael Right. . . . Well, there's an outdoor café over there. It's not very expensive.
Anna Are you sure?
Michael Yeah, I go there a lot.
Anna OK. Well, let's eat there.

Lesson C, Ex. 3B p. 59 (2.23)

1. Sophia You know, I don't really like big department stores. They're always so busy.
2. Tyler I'm a big fan of rock. I love rock music.
3. Anna You know, I never eat fast food. I mean, I don't really like it.

Unit 7 Out and about

Lesson B, Ex. 1A p. 68 (2.27)

Woman They're playing basketball.
They're playing football.
They're playing volleyball.
They're doing aerobics.
They're doing weight training.
They're doing karate.
They're bowling.
They're running.
They're biking.

Lesson C, Ex. 3A and 3B p. 71 (2.34)

1. Woman I'm working in a café this summer. It's fun. I'm learning a lot of new things.
2. Man I think my girlfriend's an Internet addict! She's on her computer 24 hours a day. And she never calls! It's driving me crazy.
3. Woman I'm having a pretty terrible day. My boyfriend is having lunch with his old girlfriend right now.
4. Man You know, my sister is an actress, and this month they're doing a new play at the City Theater. It's about a yoga teacher and her student.
5. Woman You know, I'm now in a book club. We meet every month and talk about a different book. The people are really nice. I'm making a lot of new friends.
6. Man Hey, I have tickets for the basketball game tonight.

Lesson D, Ex. 2B and 2C p. 73 (2.35)

1. Man So are you enjoying the class?
Woman Yeah, I really am. I'm coming twice a week now.
Man Twice a week? That's great.
Woman Yeah. You know, it's not like an exercise class. This is much more fun.
Man That's for sure.
Woman Uh . . . but what I really like is, I'm learning something new. And I'm getting in shape. It's good exercise.
Man Yeah, it is.
2. Man Here you are.
Woman Oh, thank you. I'm so thirsty . . . So, how many miles do you usually do?
Man Oh, about twenty to thirty miles. I mean, I ride every weekend.
Woman That's amazing. So you really enjoy it.
Man Yeah, I do. I just love the mountains. And it's so beautiful here in the spring! I just really like . . . you know, you get to see some amazing views. And it's good to be outside.
Woman Yeah, the weather is beautiful this year . . .
Man Well, are you ready? Let's go!
Woman Yeah. I guess!
3. Man Hello?
Woman Hi, it's me, Elena.
Man Oh, hi, Elena. What's up? I only have a minute to talk. I'm just leaving. . . .
Woman Well, I have a quick question for you . . . What time is the party tonight?

Photocopiable © Cambridge University Press 2014

Man I'm sorry, the what? There's a lot of noise there.
Woman Oh—I'm calling from the park. We're practicing for a game next weekend.
Man Oh, that's cool.
Woman Yeah. It's just a local team. I like it—I get to meet new people . . .
Man So how often do you play?
Woman Every Saturday—you know, we either have practice or we play against another team. Anyway, what time is the party tonight?. . . .

4. Man Uh, are you enjoying your new exercise routine?
Woman Actually, I like it a lot.
Man So, uh . . . why don't you join a gym? I mean, it's . . . uh . . . kind of noisy in here when you're exercising. It's six a.m.!
Woman Well, gym fees are very expensive. I like, you know . . . these exergames are free, so . . .
Man Well, that's good, I guess.
Woman Also, they're really convenient. I like that. I'm exercising every day now I mean, I play tennis, do aerobics, and do some karate—before you even get up.
Man Yeah, I do know. I mean, it wakes me up every morning.

Unit 8 Shopping

Lesson C, Ex. 3A and 3B p. 81 (2.47)

1. Clerk Can I help you?
Man Uh, yes. I'm looking for a gift for my wife. It's her birthday this week.
Clerk OK. Are you looking for jewelry? A purse? Um . . . or a scarf?
Man I don't know, really. Uh . . . maybe a scarf.
Clerk OK. Now, what colors does she like to wear?
Man Um . . . that's a good question . . . She wears a lot of different colors.
Clerk Let me think . . . what about this red scarf? It's a hundred and ninety-nine ninety-five.
Man Oh! That's kind of expensive, I mean, uh . . . I'm not sure about red, um . . .
Clerk Does she wear black? We have this black and white scarf.
It's a designer scarf, but it's on sale for forty-nine fifty. What do you think?
Man Forty-nine fifty? That's not expensive. And it's nice, too. I guess I'll take it.

2. Clerk Do you need some help?
Woman Uh, yes. I want to look at those sunglasses.
Clerk Do you mean these? The blue sunglasses?
Woman Right. How much are they?
Clerk They're seventy-nine ninety-five. Here—try them on.
Woman Oh, nice. What do you think? Do they look good on me?
Clerk Let's see . . . Yes, they look great on you. They're very popular this season.
Woman But I really like those, too. The black sunglasses right there.
Clerk These are on sale for seventy-four ninety-five. They're usually a hundred and fifty dollars. It's a great price. Here, put them on.
Woman Oh, they look really cool. But I'm not sure.
Clerk Um . . . Just so you know, the sale ends today.
Woman Really? OK, well I'll take the black sunglasses. I wear black a lot.

3. Clerk Can I help you with something?
Man Oh, yes, thank you! I'm looking for a pair of socks to go with this grey suit and red tie.
Clerk Um . . . let me think . . .
Man Oh, I really like those socks. The red and gray socks. They go with my suit and my tie. Uh, how much are they?
Clerk Let's see. They're fifteen dollars and ninety-five cents. But, uh . . . here's a little fashion advice. People usually wear black socks with grey suits. Or maybe grey socks. And, uh, I have these really nice black socks here for only nine ninety-five.
Man You know, I hate to wear black socks all the time. I want something a little more interesting . . . I'll just take the red and gray socks.
Clerk OK. No problem.

Lesson D, Ex. 2B p. 83 (2.48)

Man Do you like to go shopping? I mean, do you go shopping a lot?
Young-hi Uh-huh. I love to shop. And there are a lot of really cool shoe stores and clothing stores in my neighborhood, um, near my apartment. And they're not expensive.
Man Yeah?
Young-hi Yeah. And like, my favorite store is near the market—it's a little clothing store—I buy a lot of things there so . . .
Man Uh-huh.
Young-hi They don't have brand names, but they always have the latest fashions, and I just like to look at the new things every week. And uh . . . it's just a fun place to go. You know, the clerks are friendly and—
Man So, do you go there every week? That's a lot of shopping!
Young-hi Actually, yeah. Like, often, on my way home at night, after work, I like to go in and look around.
Man Is it open late, then? I mean, you often work late, until seven.
Young-hi Oh, yeah. It's open until around nine I think.
Man Huh.
Young-hi So, how about you? Where do you shop? I mean, usually?
Man Well, let's see. Um, actually, I don't really need to shop a lot. I mean, these jeans are my brother's. They're over ten years old, but they look great.

Photocopiable © Cambridge University Press 2014

Unit 9 A wide world

Lesson A, Ex. 3B p. 87 (2.52)

1. Woman What fun things can you do in your city?
2. Woman What can't you do?
3. Woman You can sit at outdoor cafés at night.
4. Woman You can't go to a show every night
5. Woman You can spend a day at the beach.
6. Woman You can't see live music at a club
7. Woman You can take a ferry to an island.
8. Woman You can go up a tower.

Lesson B, Ex. 3B and 3C p. 89 (3.02)

Richard Do you want to go out for dinner tonight?
Woman Sure, let's go out. I love to eat out.
Richard Me too. So where can we go?
Woman Well, I can always eat Mexican food. It's my favorite.
Richard Hmm. I like it, but I'm not really in the mood for it tonight.
Woman OK. Well, there's a good Italian restaurant near my gym. We can go there.
Richard Oh, I know the place. Yeah, it's good. But I eat there a lot. Can we try somewhere new?
Woman Well, do you like Japanese?
Richard Um, it's OK, but it's not my favorite. Any other ideas?
Woman Thai? Thai food is always good.
Richard Um, I don't often eat Thai food. It's a little spicy for me.
Woman OK. . . . I know. We can go to that new Brazilian restaurant. I love Brazilian food.
Richard Me too. But I eat it all the time. Well, every Sunday. My grandmother's from Brazil, so . . . Well, can you get on the Internet? Maybe we can check out some restaurants online?
Woman Oh, good idea. Let's see . . . OK, well here's one. It's a Chinese place. I can always eat Chinese. Listen, it says you can eat all you want at their new buffet.
Richard Chinese? I mean, I like Chinese food, but . . . I don't know. What else?
Woman There's an Indian restaurant. I love Indian food.
Richard Oh, I can't eat Indian food. You see, I can't eat spicy food.
Woman No? That's too bad. OK. Well, what can you eat? Turkish?
Richard Um, I don't know anything about Turkish food.
Woman OK. I know. Let's go to that new place near the movie theater. You can eat hamburgers, right?
Richard Um, yeah, I can. OK—that sounds great!

Lesson C, Ex. 3A p. 91 (3.05)

Yuki We use a lot of English words in Japanese. What about English? Does it have a lot of foreign words?
Stan Oh, yeah, especially for food. I mean, just look at this menu. Look at the word hamburger.
Yuki I know the word hamburger—It's a kind of sandwich! But it's an English word, right?
Stan Well, actually the word hamburger is German.
Yuki German? Really?
Stan Yeah, the word comes from the city of Hamburg, in Germany.
Yuki But hamburgers are really popular in the United States, right?
Stan Yeah. You can find hamburgers in almost every American restaurant.
Yuki What about this word, tortilla?
Stan The word tortilla is Spanish. People eat tortillas all over Mexico and Central America.
Yuki So what is a tortilla, exactly?
Stan Well, it's a kind of bread . . . Uh, it's kind of like a pancake. Look, here's a picture of one.
Yuki Oh, OK.
Stan You can make sandwiches with them. They have five different tortilla sandwiches on the menu.
Yuki Hmm. I bet they're delicious.
Stan OK. Here's another word you hear in English—baklava.
Yuki Is that a sandwich?
Stan No, it's a kind of dessert. And it's really, really good. Just look at this photo.
Yuki Oh. I want to try it sometime! So where does the word come from?
Stan The word is Turkish, but baklava is popular in both Greece and Turkey. Oh, look—on Saturday nights, they have music from different countries here.
Yuki Here? In this restaurant?
Stan Yeah. And tonight they have balalaika music. So that's another foreign word we use in English! The word balalaika is Russian.
Yuki So what does balalaika mean?
Stan Well, a balalaika is a kind of musical instrument. It's very popular in Russia. It's kind of like a guitar.
Yuki You know, I love Russian music.
Stan Really? Me too. So do you want to come back later tonight? And have some baklava for dessert?
Yuki I'd love to!

Photocopiable © Cambridge University Press 2014

Unit 10 Busy lives

Lesson B, Ex. 2A p. 101 (3.11)

Co-worker Hey, Mei Lei, what are you doing?
Mei Lei Oh, I'm just taking a survey online . . .
Co-worker Oh, OK.
Mei Lei I just love these surveys. OK. Did you have a busy week? Oh, yes, I did. Hmmm. Let's see . . . One. Did you have to work late every night? Yes, I did. I always work late. Two. Did you write any reports? Reports? No, I didn't. Not this week. Three. Did you get a lot of emails? Let me think. I got about a hundred emails on Monday, about 75 on Tuesday . . . Uh-huh. Yes, I did. Four. Did you have any appointments? Yep. My boss, my assistant, and four or five other people I work with. Yeah, a lot of appointments. Yes, I did. Five. Did you make a lot of phone calls? Uh, no, I didn't. These days I just send a lot of emails. Six. Did you go to any meetings? No, I didn't. Nope. I didn't have to go to any meetings.
Co-worker Well, we had a meeting this morning, but you forgot it.
Mei Lei Oh, my gosh. I'm sorry. I think maybe I'm working too hard!

Lesson C, Ex. 3A, B, and C p. 103 (3.15)

1. Man Hi, Laura. How are things going?
Laura Pretty good, but, boy . . . Thank goodness it's Friday. I'm exhausted.
Man Really? Why's that?
Laura Well, because on Monday my boss said I had to write a big report. And, uh . . . I had to finish it Thursday. So I worked late Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday night.
Man You did? Did you finish it on time?
Laura Yeah, thank goodness. But then my boss said I had to change some things. So I had to work late on it again Thursday and all day today. I mean, I didn't have a minute to relax all week.
Man Oh, I'm sorry to hear that.
Laura But, the good news is my boss loved the report! So now I get to present it next week at an important meeting.

2. Woman Hey, Tyler—How are things?
Tyler Pretty good. Thanks. Actually, really good. I just got some great news.
Woman You did? What's that?
Tyler You know I'm taking an art class—
Woman . . . No, I didn't know.
Tyler Yeah. I started last year. Well, anyway, I just finished a painting of my sister, and my teacher loved it.
Woman Oh, that's great.
Tyler Yeah. And guess what? She wanted to put it in an art exhibit . . .
Woman That's amazing.
Tyler . . . And now she wants to buy it.
Woman How exciting!
Tyler Yeah for a thousand dollars. A thousand dollars! I just sold a painting for one thousand dollars.

3. Woman Louis, how are you?
Louis Well, OK, things aren't going too well, I guess.
Woman Oh really? What happened?
Louis Well, you know, I got a job at a department store a couple of months ago . . .?
Woman Yeah, I remember that.
Louis So last month I bought a lot of new clothes and a computer and I got an expensive new phone.
Woman You did? Great. Good for you.
Louis Yeah. But listen. I paid for it all with a credit card, but I didn't worry because I have this great job, right? Well, wrong!
Woman Oh no. What happened?
Louis Last Friday, the store closed. Just like that! I mean, we all lost our jobs overnight. And now I can't pay my credit card bill . . .

Lesson D, Ex. 2A and 2B p. 105 (3.16)

Ethan Hey, Tim and Laurie. This is Ethan. How are you guys doing? I'm just calling to say I'm back. I had an amazing time in Paris! And you know me—how I usually just eat hamburgers and pizza. Well, I tried everything there. I mean, I had a new dish every night and I have to say—I just love French food. So, yeah. Now I'm home—and guess what? I'm taking a cooking class. I can't eat in French restaurants every night here, so yeah, I'm learning how to cook French food! OK, well call me. Come over sometime. Try my cooking!
Alexis Hey, Jade. Alexis here. Guess what? I'm so excited. You know I went to an interview for a summer job. Well, the good news? . . . I got the job! Thank goodness! The bad news? . . . I had to buy some nice clothes, like a skirt. I even bought some heels! Ugh. You know me—I hate to shop. But the job is in a law office so I can't wear jeans and sneakers. Oh, well. Anyway, call me. I got tickets for a show tomorrow. My sister's in it. Can you come? OK. Bye. Call me.
Sarah Hey, Sam. Are you there? Listen. You know you and Lee are always saying that I watch too much TV and that I don't get enough exercise? Well, I just did something totally crazy! I went to a sports store, and I bought an exercise bicycle. I brought it home and put it next to my bed. So I rode it for an hour last night, and then I went on it again this morning. It's great. And I really liked it. I can't believe it! I think I have a new routine! OK, so the bicycle is in front of my TV, and I watched television the whole time. But I got some good exercise!

Photocopiable © Cambridge University Press 2014

Lesson C, Ex. 3A, B, and C p. 113 (3.26)

Conversation 1

Amy Hey, Rex. How are you doing?
Rex Pretty good. Umm . . . did you have a good weekend?
Amy Yeah, I went hiking with some friends, uh . . . you know, up in the mountains.
Rex Well, you had some pretty good weather for that.
Amy Yeah, it was nice to be outdoors . . . So, how was your weekend?
Rex Good. Uh . . . I spent Saturday at the beach.
Amy But you didn't get a sunburn.
Rex No, I was under the umbrella most of the time. So, anyway . . . I guess I have to get back to work.
Amy Yeah, me too. See you later.

Conversation 2

John So, Laura, how was your weekend?
Laura Pretty good. I mean, I didn't do anything special, but I went shopping with my sister. Uh . . . I bought these new shoes.
John Oh, they're nice.
Laura Thanks. So, anyway . . . did you do anything special?
John Not much. Um . . . but I got together with some friends on Saturday night. We went dancing at that new Brazilian Club. We were there pretty late.
Laura Wow! Sounds like fun.
John Yeah, it was. Well, anyway . . . I wanted to tell you about my plans for the summer.
Laura Yeah? What plans do you have?
John I'm planning a trip to Mexico.
Laura Wow. That's great.

Conversation 3

Joe How's it going, Emma? Did you have a good weekend?
Emma Oh, yeah, it was great. It was the first weekend. I didn't study!
Joe Oh . . . so you don't have any exams this week?
Emma No, I had all my exams last week. So I just went to the movies. . .. How about you? What did you do?
Joe Well, I have my math exam today, so, you know, I studied pretty much the whole weekend.
Emma Oh, that's too bad.
Joe Yeah, I know. But I feel good about the exam. I mean, I think I'm ready for it. . .. Anyway, I have to go to the library now. I want to study some more.
Emma Well, good luck!
Joe Thanks, Emma.

Lesson D, Ex. 3A p. 115 (3.27)

Miranda About a month ago, I was in a department store with a friend of mine. It was after work. Anyway, my friend loves shopping, and I don't. I hate shopping. Anyway, I was really tired, and she picked up this sweater and said, "What do you think? Do you like this sweater?" And I didn't like it, so I just said, "Ugh! It's horrible. The colors are awful. Who buys sweaters like that? Yuck."

John I remember one time, I was in fifth grade, so I guess I was ten or eleven years old. Anyway, my mom and dad had people over for dinner. But they weren't friends. It was . . . um . . . it was my dad's boss and his wife. Yeah, that's right. Anyway, my dad's boss said to me, "So, you have a new teacher at school." And I said, "Yeah. She's not very nice. I think she's mean, and I don't like her." So, anyway, I went to school the next day, and when I saw my teacher, . . .

Lesson D, Ex. 3B p. 115 (3.28)

Miranda About a month ago, I was in a department store with a friend of mine. It was after work. Anyway, my friend loves shopping, and I don't. I hate shopping. Anyway, I was really tired, and she picked up this sweater and said, "What do you think? Do you like this sweater?" And I didn't like it, so I just said, "Ugh! It's horrible. The colors are awful. Who buys sweaters like that? Yuck." . . . My friend was very quiet. Then my friend said, "Actually, I bought one last week." I felt so bad! It was awful!

John I remember one time, I was in fifth grade, so I guess I was ten or eleven years old. Anyway, my mom and dad had people over for dinner. But they weren't friends. It was . . . um . . . it was my dad's boss and his wife. Yeah, that's right. Anyway, my dad's boss said to me, "So, you have a new teacher at school." And I said, "Yeah. She's not very nice. I think she's mean, and I don't like her." So, anyway, I went to school the next day, and when I saw my teacher, she said to me, "Hi, John. I hear you met my father last night."

Photocopiable © Cambridge University Press 2014

Unit 12 Fabulous food

Lesson B, Ex. 4B p. 121 (3.35)

1. Woman What would you like to do tonight?
2. Woman Would you like to go out for dinner?
3. Woman Would you like to try a new place?
4. Woman Where would you like to meet?
5. Woman What would you like to do after dinner?

Lesson C, Ex. 3A and 3B p. 123 (3.37)

1. Woman Jack, I'm going out for lunch. Do you want to come? I know a good soup place near here.
   Jack Actually, I'd like to try that new Italian restaurant. I'm hungry and I feel like some pasta, and maybe some chicken or something. And they have great desserts. Would you like to go there?
   Woman You can eat pasta, meat, and dessert for lunch? Really?
   Jack Well, it's almost noon. I had breakfast at five o'clock this morning. That's seven hours ago.
   Woman You know, it's not good to eat a big meal at noon. It makes you really sleepy in the afternoon. You can't work if you eat a lunch like that.
2. Man Hey, Rachel. I'm going out to get something to eat. Can I get something for you or . . .?
   Rachel Well, where are you going exactly?
   Man To that pizza place around the corner.
   Rachel Oh . . . Well, I don't really want pizza or anything. But they have salads. I'd like a small salad maybe. I'm going out for a big dinner tonight, so . . .
   Man Just a small salad? That's not much for lunch. It's important to eat a big lunch and then eat something light for dinner.
3. Woman Are you going out for lunch now? It's only eleven o'clock!
   Peter Yeah. I'm hungry. I'm going to that Turkish food stand here.
   Woman You mean the place near the park?
   Peter Uh-huh. They make great sandwiches. I always get the lamb and cheese and lettuce. Their sauce is amazing. Do you want to go or . . .?
   Woman Hmm. That sounds good! Well, I guess I'm pretty hungry.
   Peter I'm starving. You know, I never have time for breakfast, so I'm always hungry by eleven o'clock.
   Woman But that's not good. They say never skip breakfast. You need to eat a good breakfast every day.
4. Man Would you like to go out for lunch today or . . .?
   Abby Sure. I'd love to.
   Man So where would you like to go?
   Abby Well, I just want something, I don't know, like an omelette or something.
   Man You don't want a salad or something like that?
   Abby No, I'd like to go to that French café. Their omelettes are sooo good. They use three eggs, and a lot of cheese. And they cook them in pure butter. Mmm-mmm. They're delicious.
   Man I can't believe you eat omelettes! It's not good to eat eggs, cheese, and butter. Those things are just not good for you!

Lesson D, Ex. 2A p. 125 (3.38)

Olivia I went to a really good restaurant last week. It's called Café Bravo. Do you know it?
Man No. Tell me about it. I want to take my girlfriend somewhere really nice. For her birthday. Is it Italian?
Olivia Actually, it's a Spanish restaurant. The owner's from Spain—from Barcelona, I think.
Man So what kind of food do they serve? I don't know much about Spanish food.
Olivia Well, their specialty is paella. They say it's really authentic paella. Just like in Spain.
Man Paella? What's that?
Olivia It's a rice dish with seafood and chicken and lots of different things. I had a seafood paella with shrimp and all different kinds of shellfish—it was delicious. They have a lot of fish and seafood. Actually, there weren't many meat dishes on the menu.
Man Hmm, I'm not sure she'd like it. She doesn't like shellfish. . .. I guess she's kind of a picky eater.
Olivia Well, one of my friends is a vegetarian, and he ordered a vegetarian paella. They have a whole list of vegetarian dishes.
Man Oh, well that's good. She likes vegetarian food. What about the service? Was it good?
Olivia It was a little slow, but we weren't in a hurry or anything, and the servers were really friendly. It was pretty noisy. But it was a good atmosphere, you know, fun.
Man Was it expensive?
Olivia Well, it wasn't cheap. But I highly recommend it. I think your girlfriend would like it.

Photocopiable © Cambridge University Press 2014