★Unit1 (Lesson A)

Answers

1. I know this sounds bad, but I love to drive really fast. I think I drive really well, though. I don't get reckless when I get behind the wheel or anything.
2. I try hard to be neat and tidy. Like, I always put my keys on the shelf automatically when I get home. You can lose your keys so easily.
3. I think it's important to take work seriously. I mean, it only seems right. If you do a job well, you feel good about yourself, too.
4. I guess I can get impatient sometimes. Like, I want instant replies to my texts and emails. I just don't like to wait when I need an answer quickly.
5. I love sports, but I don't really play for fun. I feel pretty strongly that you should play to win. I feel terrible if I lose. My friends see things differently and say that I'm too serious about sports and that I should relax.
6. I hate it when people don't write texts properly and don't use correct grammar and punctuation. It's not because they're writing quickly – they just don't care about it. I always check over my texts very carefully before I send them.

★Unit5 (Lesson B)

Answers

A few months ago, I completely changed my eating habits. I used to eat too much sugar, too much processed fat, and too many take-out meals. I also didn't eat my meals slowly enough because I was always rushing out somewhere. My mother was always saying, 'You eat too quickly' or 'You're not eating enough protein,' and as for fast food, I know I definitely ate too much. I really thought my mom complained too much, but actually I guess I didn't pay enough attention to her. I got sick! The doctor said my diet wasn't healthy enough and I needed to change it. He also said I needed more vitamins and I wasn't getting enough.

No surprise there! So I changed my diet. In the end, it was simple enough to do. Now I'm eating a lot of raw vegetables – I guess you can't eat too many of those! I feel great. And guess what? My mom can't say I don't eat well enough. Not now!

Comment Good for you! You should never be too busy to look after your health! Too much junk food and too many sweets are not good for you.
